

THE VISITOR

Fish Fry Fun (Brad Saufferer)

The walleye will be frying July 16th at the Half Pint Brewery. This will be the second annual fish fry to benefit the accessibility project at the Blooming Grove Church. Brad Spinler's brain trust, or as I refer to them, the dream team, will be doing the frying again this year. French fries, coleslaw, cookies, and root beer floats will round out the menu. As always, a free will offering will be collected for each meal.

We are looking for volunteers to help with food prep, serving, set up, and whatever else pops up. Talk to me at church or give me a call at (507) 363-6579. It's a lot fun and a chance to talk smart and tell lies with good friends while supporting a worthwhile project. I excel at both talking smart and telling lies. See you there.

The Stretch

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.

--Anne Frank

Welcome! "The Stretch" will be a space where opportunities to learn, grapple, and discover how we show up as love in the world through justice related topics. You can expect articles, book suggestions, informed discussion spaces, and a plethora of ways to experience what it means to be Christ in the world. We will start The Stretch experiment with a suggestion for a summer read! This Tender Land is a William Kent Krueger novel about "four orphans on a life-changing odyssey during the Great Depression". Read and enjoy, then plan to gather in September as we dig a little deeper into the history of boarding schools in our country.

Part 2 to this experiment is an invitation to a safe space to learn and ask questions about LGBTQ+ inclusion. This is a topic that has been in the forefront of our denomination, communities, and families. I will be using a variety of reference books to facilitate from including, The Savvy Ally by Jeannie Gainsburg. If you so desire, please read the book, but it is not necessary. The only requirement is to bring yourself completely open to being stretched as we meet at Blooming Grove UMC on Wednesday, August 23rd at 7:00 pm.

Thank you for walking with me. Please share any ideas or thoughts you would like included in The Stretch as this little corner of the Visitor evolves. Much Peace,
Cindy Saufferer

Thank you to
Cindy Saufferer,
UMC Deaconess, and Fred Vanderwerf, our Southern Prairie UMC
District Superintendent

for leading our parish in the Sunday, June 4th conversation about these times of change and transition within the United Methodist denomination – all stemming from the church's longtime and ongoing disagreement over homosexuality and the inclusion of the LGBTQ+ community. Cindy and Fred provided a helpful historical perspective as well as pertinent information that addressed the misinformation and confusion currently swirling about in the United Methodist denomination. In addition, they provided clarifying information regarding the aspirational and inclusive stance taken by our Minnesota United Methodist Conference. Feel free to contact Cindy Saufferer for additional conversation and/or with any questions you may have.

Thank you to special guests, T.P. and J.P. who joined us for morning worship and brunch on Sunday, June 11th to share stories of their experiences and work while serving in SE Asia. It was fascinating and heart-stirring to hear of all that is happening there, and how we, in our United Methodist inter-connectedness, can continue to support the people and places that their lives touch.

Celebrations

“Celebrate God all day, every day. I mean, revel in him! Make it as clear as you can to all you meet that you’re on their side, working with them and not against them. Help them see that the Master is about to arrive. He could show up any minute!”

Philippians 4: 4-5 MSG

July—and the second half of the year of 2023 begins! As one who wonders how time passes so very quickly, I also ponder if I allow those days to pass without taking the time to celebrate this gift of life by celebrating our Almighty God.

There is much to celebrate in our lives. As I read this passage from Philippians, I appreciated the translation I found in The Message. Most translations of this text say, “Rejoice in the Lord.” I like Peterson’s iteration that says we should “Celebrate God all day, every day.” Yet too many days I get caught up in the busyness of my “to-do” lists and forget that the hours of each day are not meant to be endured but enjoyed. God gave us the gift of life out of love. When humanity forgot to see God’s good Creation, God had a plan to bring us back to the realization of the gift of life—Jesus.

Friends, as our July 4th holiday grows close, let’s revel in God by following the advice given in this text: Revel in God. Let’s do all we can to make it clear to everyone we meet that “we are on their side and willing to work with them.” As we find the joy in living, we can help each other celebrate life. Make it a point to reach out to one person who may be struggling each day in some small way. Show them God’s love by caring.

On July 8th, we have an opportunity to celebrate life by supporting brothers and sisters in the LGBTQIA+ Community at Pride in the Park at the Morehouse Park Pavilion in Owatonna. If you are interested in attending, please talk to me.

On July 30th, we will have our next joint worship service at Waterville EUMC. If you enjoy singing, celebrate life by joining the parish popup choir! Look for more information in this newsletter about that opportunity.

Please know your pastor celebrates each one of you for the beautiful child of God you are! Jerry and I are blessed by you!

Pastor Kathy

Hero Hotline

In the depths of a colorful underground cave, is the beating heart of the hero community, the Hero Hotline Headquarters where everyone's gifts are valued, and every hero has a role to play. Each day at the Hero Hotline Headquarters, superheroes of all ages and abilities answer the call and join the Professor and veteran hero, Super Meer the Meerkat, to provide expert assistance and solutions to Hero Teams everywhere.

When Heroes in the field call in, the Professor, Super Meer, and our team of heroes will spring into action and explore the ultimate Hero Handbook -the Bible- to discover how all Heroes can follow the examples set by a cast of supporting Bible Heroes in stories from the Old and New Testaments, who work together to bring peace, build each other up, and share the great story of God's love for us where they are and with the whole world.

Sounds like a fun packed week, right? Please join us! Ages 3-12 welcome!

Please call or text me if you would like me to visit or if there is a prayer concern that you prefer to keep private.*

Out of respect for all parties involved, Pastor Kathy does not make pastoral care visits unannounced or without prior invitation from the person involved (or from their friends or family members, on their behalf.)

Madeline was a clinical research coordinator at the Mayo Clinic. She had also just entered her first term of graduate school at the U of M in its Public Health Administration master’s degree program. All this as well as being a single mom to a 2-year-old son and a 5-year-old daughter. Please hold Maddie’s family, friends, and all impacted by this tragedy in your hearts.

Ruth Carolyn (Hintze) Lemke passed away after a brief illness on Wednesday, June 21, 2023, at Olmsted Medical Center. She was 86 years old. Ruth was born in Spring Valley, MN, on January 13, 1937, to Ruben and Lenora (Grabau) Hintze. Ruth attended school in Spring Valley, graduating from Spring Valley High School in 1955, where she had been active in both band and chorus. Ruth worked at First National Bank in downtown Spring Valley after high school. During this time, she took several vacation trips with a group of girls she worked with, most of whom remained lifelong friends.

In 1957, she met and dated Ray Lemke. They were married on June 14, 1959. After taking several years away from banking to raise daughters Carolyn and Ann to school age, she returned to the workforce for a few years at the Standard Oil terminal east of Spring Valley, then returned to banking. She retired from First State Bank in Spring Valley.

Ruth enjoyed attending her daughters’ school activities, even in their collage years, and she acted as room mother and chaperone at various times throughout their elementary years. Ruth also enjoyed crafts and sewing, music, gardening, genealogy, collecting fossils and rocks, and spending time in nature. The whole family enjoyed many camping vacations all over the United States. Ruth was a current member of both the Spring Valley Garden Club and the local quilting club. Ray and Ruth played cards monthly with the same group of friends for 50 years. In their retirement year, Ruth and Ray took short camping trips to various national fossil society shows. Ruth also sang in the church choir most of her adult life.

Ruth is survived by daughters Carolyn (Brian) Kanne of Medford, Minnesota, and Ann (Brad) Ihrke of Spring Valley. Also surviving are grandchildren Deanna Kanne of Orlando, Florida, Michael Kanne of Medford, Josh (Brooke) Ihrke of Stewartville, Minnesota, a brother, Roger Hintze, of Shoreview, Minnesota, and a sister-in-law, Anita Nelson of Spring Valley.

Ruth was preceded in death by her husband of nearly 64 years, Ray; parents Ruben and Lenora; brothers- and sisters-in-law Douglas and Anna Richardson, Edwin and Lila Lemke, Wilmer (Bill) and Sylvia Lemke, Alan and Leona Nelson, David and Doris Crabtree, and Ken Nelson; 2 nephews and 2 nieces.

Highlights from May 2023 Annual Conference of the Minnesota United Methodist Church

Theme

Drawing on Luke 24:13-35, the theme of this year's gathering was "Encounter. Transform. Respond. The Emmaus Experience." This post-resurrection story where everything has changed and the implications still seem a bit cloudy mirrors the time and space we are living in as a church. We, like the two disciples, are on the road, asking deep questions, and trying to make sense of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus today. And we, too, are finding that we encounter Christ in transforming ways when we do.

Bishop's Episcopal Address

In the Emmaus Road story, the impossible becomes possible as the world is made right again through encounters with the resurrected Christ who brings healing, reconciliation, and hope. Bishop Lanette Plambeck, in her inaugural Episcopal Address, reminds us that this story for the two disciples on the road is our story too. During this challenging time in The United Methodist Church, she invited those of us in the Minnesota Conference to lean in to one another and declare that there is enough love for all of us, and she reminded each person: You are loved. You are a child of God and a person of worth. There are no exceptions

Holy Communion

The Bishop led the entire body in celebrating Holy Communion together. Pastor Kathy King, Cindy Saufferer, and Karen Olson served the Communion Elements at one of the stations.

Milestones in ministry

Those gathered honored and thanked 14 clergy entering retirement, and they celebrated four pastors ordained as elders, two commissioned as provisional members, 13 people authorized to serve as local pastors in the congregations and ministry areas in which they are appointed, and three local licensed pastors, Revs. Paula Gaboury, Dawn Houser, and Kathy King, who completed their five-year course of study (presented with beautiful red scapulars as a sign of this accomplishment.)

Fresh Expressions with Michael Beck

Rev. Dr. Michael Beck is co-pastor of two Florida churches and a network of "fresh expressions" led by laity that gather in various community venues and public spaces around shared interests and hobbies. He talked about fresh expressions as a new movement of Christian communities where people with no connection to the church are finding life and encountering Christ. Dinner church whereby people gather to share a meal is an easy starting point for a fresh expression, Beck said. Some of the other fresh expressions he's involved with take place in a tattoo parlor, at a restaurant, in a virtual reality space, and at dog park.

Conference Preacher

This year's conference preacher was Rev. Becky Jo Messenbrink, who serves Eden Prairie UMC. She talked about her desire for an expandable table and reminded those gathered that Jesus' table was for everyone. "Perhaps the church is called to mirror the table which Jesus sets—an expansive table of belonging and community where all are welcome, where all are included and celebrated and treasured, an expansive table at which Jesus can be recognized, and where the kingdom of God is present and talk about God turns into encounters with the living God," she said.

Love Offering

Conference members, on behalf of their churches gave just over $40,000 to the 2023 Love Offering. Sixty percent of it will fund a new grant to support churches that have partnerships with mental health services offered in local schools or communities, 30 percent will go to three Minnesota nonprofits engaged in mental health education and advocacy, and 10 percent of the Love Offering each year goes to Volunteers in Mission scholarships, which support first-time mission trip participants.

Legislation

Hundreds of voting members in attendance at Annual Conference approved all pieces of legislation before them, including resolutions opposing assault-style weapons, addressing the Israeli detention of children, and supporting the creation of a U.S. Regional Conference, and supporting the removal of all discriminatory policies and harmful language related to sexual orientation from the Book of Discipline.

Disaffiliating Churches

Members ratified the terms of disaffiliation agreements made between the conference Board of Trustees and 14 local churches that have discerned that their path goes a different direction from the Minnesota Annual Conference. After the vote, Bishop Lanette asked Minnesota United Methodists to keep these congregations in their hearts and to pray that even as we part ways, they may continue to live out their faith and serve as a beacon of light and hope for all.

Jeanne Audrey Powers Ecumenism Award for Healing a Broken World

ers Ecumenism Award for Healing a Broken World. Cindy Saufferer (right), president of MN UWF accepted the award for the group. In the past year, UWF members in Minnesota have organized presentations on Native American ministry, participated in Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women marches and Minnesota Healing Stories Sacred Sites Tours, and learned about migrant workers and racial reparations. UWF is a long-time partner of Emma Norton Services, which seeks to provide stable housing for women in transition. In the past year, UWF has also raised up deaconesses and home missionaries who are putting love in action. In their steadfastness to their mission of healing a broken world and through their pivot to open membership to all women of faith, they embody the heart of this award.

Water Blessing

Prior to Wednesday's Opening Session, the Committee on Native American Ministry (including Pastor Kathy King and Cindy Saufferer) invited all participants to join in a Water

Blessing - naming the ancestral ground on which we stood and blessing the water from which we come.
